CITY FERRY FLEET READY, BUT NO SLIPS

Staten Island Boats, Launched with Ceremony. Will Be Stored Away Until Municipal Frenzied Financiers Buy Sites and Build Landings.

Wave got the beats,
We've got the base,
We've got the bayBeat and Build Landings.

The Dock Department has furnished a problem in "frenited finance" over which the residents of Staten Island have been splitting their heads for some time past. So far nobody has been able to furnish an answer, kithough there have been many guesses. The problem, briefly stated, is as followed the problem of the beats of the present books of th why has been the cause of many guesses. First it was reported that the the lowest bid was so low that the bidder could not possibly do the work, and then it was hirded that one of his close political friends was smong the bidders and his failure to get the contract had made the Commissioner unhappy.

Commissioner Featherson declares that oth of these guesses are wrong. But. he residents of Staten Island to enjoy he promised better transportation facil-ties this year. The result has been that business in the Borough of Richdeals in real estate which were about to be closed have been held in abeyance. tended to spend the summer on the teland are in a quandary what to do,
The city intends to make use of the present Manhattan landing of the

Staten Island boats for its new craft, but before this can be done it will be necessary to widen the slips and make other alterations, which have not yet been commenced

As the city has apportioned money for this work, the indignant Staten Islandors riticise Commissoner Featherson for this delay. They think that he should have begun the alterations just as soon as the five new boats were or-There Are Lions in the Way.

The Commissioner writhes indignantly under this censure. "The people do not understand what I have to contend with," he said. "It will be a difficult task to alter the terry landing at the "The delay in putting up the ferry landing at St. George is due to the fact that Comotroller Grout has failed fact that Comptroller Grout has failed to set a clear title to the property. Had he done so, we would have at once commenced work. But as matters stand, I do not intend to spend the city's money in making improvements on land which is not positively the city's property. "No effort is being made to rob Seeley & Taylor of their contract. They will his daughter Helen.

The Pontiff was most interented in me Mr. Maloney's conversation about Catinolic affairs in America and the efforts being made for the welfare of immisgrants, and expressed a desire to short-ly have another and longer interview with Mr. Maloney.

The Pope presented the Marquis with a large gold medul bearing his effigy and arms and presented Miss Maloney with a beautiful cameo with the Pope's head in relief surrounded with rubles.
